Character Background

You live a good life and dine on the finest gourmet meals. As your reward you have a round, pudgy belly. You are an excellent dinner guest because your sharp wit and constant smile make your hosts feel happy.

You are also a slob. You thrive on chaos and disorder. It is impossible for you to trust anyone that is too perfect. A disorganized mess is a sign of a mind reaching its full potential.

Goals

Kobold tradition requires a new leader to compete in a contest of incredible feats. The feat the contestants are asked to do may test their strength, intelligence or bravery. The living clan members vote for the winner and their new leader by a show of paws.
